

Speaker Bio

From the Battlespace to the Boardroom - Transformational Leadership Expert

Joel Smith is a distinguished strategic leadership expert and speaker known for his transformative impact on organizations across diverse industries. With over three decades of high-stakes military experience as a Chief Warrant Officer Five in the U.S. Army, Joel has honed his skills in leadership, strategic planning, and crisis management. His impressive career includes multiple combat tours, advanced military training, and significant roles in human resources and aviation operations.

Transitioning seamlessly from military command to corporate strategy, Joel is the co-founder of J225 Ventures. Through this venture, he offers unparalleled strategic leadership training, executive coaching, and keynote speaking engagements. Joel's mission is to change the way leaders think, driving organizational excellence through disciplined execution and innovative strategies. His programs uniquely blend the precision of military tactics with the dynamic needs of modern businesses, empowering leaders to navigate complexity and achieve sustainable success.

Joel is a sought-after speaker whose compelling presentations and interactive style have inspired and transformed audiences worldwide. He brings a wealth of knowledge in strategic leadership, team building, and ethical stewardship, delivering profound insights that leave a lasting impact.

From the battlespace to the boardroom, Joel Smith exemplifies the power of strategic leadership and continues to redefine the standards of excellence in the field. His dedication, experience, and vision make him a pivotal ally for any organization aiming to elevate its leadership capabilities.

Website:

www.thejoelsmith.com

Email:

contactjoel@j225ventures.com